

NEW TIME

Sexual retardation:

Physical life, being physical, continues only through births of different physical bodies: women and men. The LGBTQ feeling is just a feeling, and it uses the same body. Physical life disappears with it because there are no births. The existence of heterosexual feeling occurs with people, just as the sexual feeling of human fraud occurs with LGBTQ people. It is a strategy to replace heterosexual feeling with the visual image of fraudulent LGBTQ couples. When heterosexuals become victims of believing that “these are new times,” “it is normal,” “they are different,” “it is fashion,” or “it is not more of the same,” those are psychological strategies to achieve the replacement: heterosexual to LGBTQ. Once the replacement is achieved, death is the only permanent outcome because there are no births. The insistence driven by LGBTQ feeling exists to eliminate heterosexual couples and make the world LGBTQ only, permanently addressing the mortality of physical life that does not continue with the same sex. When heterosexuals are victimized, their heterosexual feeling of believing that “these are new times” is replaced. When the heterosexual feeling is replaced, that is the origin of bisexuality. Bisexual existence is a strategy that uses heterosexual women or men to give LGBTQ continuity in a legal way, because bisexuals are authentic births of people with a bisexual sexual impediment. Births are the continuity of physical life. Because births cannot occur with the same sex, that is the origin of this LGBTQ bisexual feeling. Once disabled couples die, physical life disappears because there were no births. Life ends because the LGBTQ feeling does not allow heterosexuality, as a strategy to ensure that physical life disappears with each old age. Same-sex couples do not resolve births by adopting other people’s wombs or by in vitro births. The eliminated heterosexual sex has an endpoint in the future. Adoption occurs because the origin heterosexual sex was completely eliminated, which is where the fraudulent feeling, LGBTQ, is headed.

In this way, it is the only strategy to end life, because murderers receive legal sanctions for an effect that exists, while this does not. Currently, adoptions come from heterosexual sex. Although adoptees were not born with this sexual impediment, they would acquire it. Those adopted by couples who have this type of sexual disability grow up with these fraudulent customs between people of the same sex. As they grow up with the customs learned from those who adopted them, the adoptees would experiment, because there is a mental history of those customs. That is where the heterosexual feeling is replaced. Substituting heterosexual feeling is the continuity of these conditions of sexual fraud, a continuity equal to when LGBTQ people continue to be born from heterosexual sex with these conditions of sexual disability. In this way, it remains strategic to eliminate heterosexual sex in order to make physical life disappear in the future, thereby acquiring victims. This disease sought to ensure that a person would not be born if the parents had been victims of believing that LGBTQ “are new times,” “it is normal,” or “they are different.” These LGBTQ people continue to exist because they were born from heterosexual sex with this retarded sexual feeling inside their bodies. These people, already born, are led by the same conditions of sexual impediments to sexual fraud, with plastic penises and anal sex, because it is a human fraud. Disabled sex LGBTQ since they are disabled because they have no complementary private parts, results in deadly diseases. Plastic penises with women cause cancer in the vagina, and anal sex with men causes diseases from feces. To keep this sexual impediment from being discovered, LGBTQ people fraudulently convince each other that they are different so that they protest and eliminate heterosexual couples, ensuring that physical life does not continue with births and disappears. When heterosexual commerce is replaced by LGBTQ commerce, economic poverty is totally guaranteed. Being an LGBTQ sexual fraud, there are no births to support it in any future. Heterosexuality is a physical logic whose money is physical. The economy never collapses under heterosexual physical logic because it sustains itself with births permanently, as in the present. LGBT people with sexual retardation who are human-resources staff or employers: as this pity scam to replace heterosexuals continues to spread, it will reach a point where you must be LGBTQ to be employed. If you are not, you will be denied employment.

This will happen by rounding up heterosexual men and women who, faced with the need for a job, eliminate heterosexual feeling through experimentation. This will happen because heterosexual people took pity on LGBTQ scammers who only exist to defraud the feelings of heterosexual men and women. The flag is a psychological strategy to replace heterosexual feeling. Every time people see the colors, even if not directly on the flag, the effect occurs. Women who are victims of other retarded LGBTQ women always imagine they are men. Mostly they are victims so as not to feel inferior to men, and because the mentality is the same. With that, they convince heterosexual women. The same happens with men. There are also LGBTQ men who try to convince heterosexual men that an anus is better because it is tighter and you can ejaculate without the responsibilities of subsequent pregnancies, and that they are better than women because they do not menstruate and menstruation smells bad. These are fraudulent conquests. It is just a feeling and not a physical body, so it is the same body even if they wear fraudulent clothes or not. They are fraudulent because it is the same body used to defraud heterosexuals. Promotions or appearances in videos, commercials, porn videos, and current movies are meant to acquire monetary gains from the community. But that is to convince merchants of monetary gains. In effect, those promotions are not the same as those for merchants. They are really meant to attract the attention of heterosexuals to experiment. Sympathy is not sympathy; it is scamming heterosexual men and women, because it is human fraud: LGBTQ. Heterosexuals have natural and compatible intimate positions. Other fraudulent LGBTQ existences are not natural in their private parts because it is sexual fraud. Whether or not they dress up, it is sexual fraud because it is still the same sex. Dressing up cheats the visual appeal of heterosexual men and women. Rehabilitate this retardation or let them commit suicide, because it is a preventable sexual feeling that makes physical life disappear by preventing new births with the same body and the same sex, in juvenile or accidental mortality caused by not continuing with new births. This LGBTQ human-fraud existence exists only to defraud the heterosexual feeling of heterosexual women and heterosexual men. Women dressed and groomed as men to scam heterosexual women. Men dressed as women with wigs or long hair to scam heterosexual men.

The fraudulent LGBTQ backlog will become so toxic that it will reach a point where removing this fraudulent LGBTQ existence will mean killing the LGBTQ community. This will be done by heterosexual people. The worst massacres will occur around the world if world governments do not intervene to solve this disgust in society. Heterosexuals will kill these LGBTQ women and men with sexual retardation to protect the future of their children. These LGBTQ people continue to exist because they are born to sexually delayed heterosexual sex. So once they are born with these same-sex sexually delayed conditions, physical life does not continue with births and disappears over centuries. That is why they seek to eliminate heterosexual couples so that physical life does not continue with births. For this, the existence of the same sex exists: to prevent births. The demonstrations by people with sexual retardation seek to make world governments fall as victims and normalize sexual retardation between people of the same sex, and heterosexual men and women are victims of feeling it is normal. Once this happens because heterosexual women and men fall victim to believing that same sex is normal, two more steps will follow. First, women and men with an LGBTQ retarded feeling will start convincing heterosexual men and women using sentimental feelings, beginning as a good, loving friendship. With time, after having sympathized with the community, sexually retarded LGBTQ women and men will invite them to experiment and share sexual pleasures, using sentimental affection and friendly sympathy. In these hidden ways, they eliminate heterosexual couples. That is the second step. As the last step, they eliminate heterosexual couples all over the world so that sexual retardation begins to secretly make physical life disappear with the same sex, because no one will be born of the same sex. In every future time, physical life will secretly disappear like this. Heterosexual men and women should not sympathize or feel pity because "they are equal," because they are people who eliminate heterosexual couples. Over time, they only seek friendship with heterosexual men and women to deceive heterosexual feeling. It happens because it is a sexual retardation used only to fool heterosexual people, and it was not discovered that it is only a sexual retardation hidden by other normal behaviors. Hiding like this to deceive heterosexual men and women that same-sex couples are normal that is why these same-sex sexual retards act normal in other things, but not in sex, because it is only sexual retardation, where the physical body is the sexual fraud.

Retardation, fraud, impediment LGBTQ are three sexual-retardation conditions together. The Government Is a Victim of Protests. The protests are ways to use the penalty written on protest signs so that the government has mercy. Once the government becomes a victim, pity is considered instead of logic, and the consequences of considering penalty are serious and bad. By taking penalty into account, the government will be victimized by granting equality to a sexual retardation through protests, treating it as another normal experience of being victimized in these ways. Automatically, the same government represents sexually retarded LGBTQ couples as normal. By portraying the government this way as victims, these fraudulent LGBTQ couples would turn against the government after it has been victimized by the protests. It would turn against the government because heterosexual men and women would start experimenting with retarded LGBTQ people, and in this way the heterosexual feeling would be eliminated. The government, as victims of the protests, would represent this fraudulent existence as normal. This LGBTQ sexual fraud, as the objective of the protests, seeks to eliminate the world's heterosexual feeling through legalities in the government that treat LGBTQ couples with sexual retardation as normal. Once presidents or politicians are victims of LGBTQ protests, the LGBTQ community would later turn against the government because LGBTQ couples, being only a sexual retardation, would begin to eliminate births with the same body. Physical life would disappear because it is an impeded feeling in these people. By having no births and eliminating heterosexual feeling, the economy disappears because there would be no new births to sustain it as a continuous people. As LGBTQ people continue, physical life will begin to disappear over time because there are no births, and the government will be left with no people and a collapsed economic system. These are the reasons it is only a feeling and not a physical body: to eliminate handicapped same-sex births in this way. LGBTQ people do not realize this disaster because they live the fantasy of a fraudulent feeling and not the reality of the body. They are sexually retarded, where the physical body is the sexual fraud. LGBTQ sexual retards are only sexual. They hide the delays with other normal behaviors so that the sexual retardation can be presented as normal, and so the objectives can never be discovered.

The objectives are to prevent births and make physical life disappear, hidden like this with the same sex across different future times. How was it not confirmed before that they are retarded with a retarded sexual mentality, to globally convince specific people heterosexual women and men that it is normal? In moments of heterosexual couples' romantic disappointments, heterosexual women and men feel that same-sex couples are normal due to other normal behaviors outside of sex: flags, fraudulent discourses on same-sex sexual orientations, etc. They then consider the same-sex alternative and become a victim of sex fraud. How it was not confirmed that they are sexual retardations intended to prevent births, as victims of fraudulent convictions, is or was the trend of sexual retardations of same-sex couples. Once people are victims of same-sex sexual fraud by the influence of LGBTQ people who feel retarded, those are forms of a same-sex couples' mental-retardation trend. Sexual retardation starts in youth and leads to the disappearance of physical life in a future of old age or accidental death for same-sex couples, because no one is born of the same sex. They are sexual retardations hidden with other normal behaviors. Owners are victims of thinking that LGBTQ is a new trade, because they are victims of not knowing that this trade is guaranteed to go bankrupt. There are no births with LGBTQ to sustain the trader's permanent economic income. LGBTQ are slowly using the pity of heterosexual women and men to eliminate heterosexuality. It is not offensive to say that same sex is a sexual fraud because it is the reality of this existence. By not calling this LGBTQ existence "same-sex sexual retardation," they allow these people to believe that the attractions they feel are normal, and as an effect, they believe it is normal. Currently, little by little, they are using propaganda and protests to try to accommodate sexual retardation by deceiving governments and the people who fall for the fraud through sympathetic propaganda to prevent same-sex births. When the authorities realize that this sentiment aims to replace heterosexuals in order to create a completely fraudulent LGBTQ world, they will create a mandatory rehabilitation law for LGBTQ people, or kill those who refuse. Those who refuse will refuse because they believe this feeling is normal in those bodies, because it is a fraudulent sexual mindset.

The next page explains how, little by little and secretly, the process is moving towards replacement.

Conclusions:

The happiness of the LGBTQ feeling is fraudulent because the feeling of happiness comes in exchange for scamming other people with the same sex, but directly aimed at scamming heterosexual men and women. The happiness of feeling LGBTQ is fraudulent because if the person who was born with a sexual retardation of same-sex attraction decides to reject the feeling to live the reality of the physical body, the happiness of the feeling disappears. Since no person wants to feel sad, the fraudulent feeling corners these people into living the life of feelings. By living the life of feelings, the physical body automatically commits sex fraud with the same sex: man with anal sex, and women with plastic penises, vibrators, manual sex with fingers, and others. Bisexuality is equally sexually retarded because feeling bisexual depends on how the person with bisexual retardation feels each day: with a heterosexual preference or a same-sex preference. Bisexuality is a backwardness because the physical body does not change with another feeling; the physical body is a single-sex aesthetic. Bisexual existence is always more permanent in the same sex because it is a backward feeling too. Many people are victims of thinking that transgender fraudulent women are women because they changed the way they dress from man to woman or had the penis removed. The reality is that they are not women because the organs will never be female and they can never be women, because being a woman is by birth. Transsexuals are the direct existence of scamming the appearance of heterosexual real women to scam the visual sexuality of heterosexual men. Women dressed as men are fraudulent men to defraud the appearance of real men and to defraud the visual sexuality of heterosexual women. Being a fraudulent feeling of mental origin, the same fraudulent feeling guides these people to take over the planet until they manage to eliminate the entire heterosexual regime, such as heterosexual politicians, heterosexual businessmen, or others, until they take over the economic system. If LGBTQ takes over the entire planet and takes control of the economic system, heterosexuals will not agree because the same sex is not normal. If LGBTQ takes economic control and eliminates heterosexual politicians, LGBTQ will begin to make life miserable for heterosexual men and women.

For example, when looking for a job, if the person is not LGBTQ, they will not give you the job, forcing heterosexuals to be forced to be LGBTQ. Because they will be controlling the government and the economic system, and since human quality of life depends on the economic system, those who are LGBTQ will not suffer financially. Heterosexual men and women will suffer instead, to force heterosexuality not to exist. Once same-sex LGBTQ is driving the world economy and replacing heterosexual economic support with LGBTQ support, economic collapse would begin and physical life would disappear because there would be no births between people of the same sex, since there were no births and the LGBTQ feeling does not allow it. The permanent existence of human beings with births would cease to be permanent, because as the next step, the planet would begin to function with a false normality. Because there are no births, everything collapses, and the economic system too. You can see how the replacement of heterosexuals with LGBTQ is being noticed by the government being victimized: promotions of colors and flags on the buildings of shopping centers, thus little by little eliminating heterosexuality. Owners are victims of thinking that LGBTQ is a new trade, because they are victims of not knowing that this trade is guaranteed to go bankrupt. There are no births with LGBTQ to sustain the trader's permanent economic income. LGBTQ are slowly using the pity of heterosexual women and men to eliminate heterosexuality. It is not offensive to say that same sex is a sexual fraud because it is the reality of this existence. By not calling this LGBTQ existence "same-sex sexual retardation," they allow these people to believe that the attractions they feel are normal, and as an effect, they believe it is normal. Currently, little by little, they are using propaganda and protests to try to accommodate sexual retardation by deceiving governments and the victims of people who fall for the fraud through sympathetic propaganda to prevent same-sex births. When the authorities realize that this sentiment aims to replace heterosexuals in order to create a completely fraudulent LGBTQ world, they will create a mandatory rehabilitation law for LGBTQ people, or kill those who refuse. Those who refuse will refuse because they believe this feeling is normal in those bodies, because it is a fraudulent sexual mindset.

No one can be born from the fraud of same-sex, and the economic system collapses.

LGBTQ Rehabilitation:

1. Feelings are not the same as the body, because the goal of this feeling is to deceive others with the physical body, convincing them through ignorance that it is a sexual fraud involving the physical body. Heterosexual pornographic films are the rehabilitation for this fraudulent sexual mindset.

2. Because it is a fraudulent sexual mindset, masturbation to heterosexual pornographic films that depict real sex eventually eliminates this fraudulent sexual mindset over time, because it involves contact with heterosexual pornography that represents real sex.

3. Therapies only help guide these patients with this fraudulent sexual mindset toward their physical reality, so that these LGBTQ patients can realize that their feelings are not the reality of their bodies. The way to realize this is by watching heterosexual pornography, because the feeling is a sexual fraud.

4. Once rehabilitated, these individuals become homophobic and cannot look at LGBTQ couples because, having been rehabilitated, they lack the mental fortitude to ignore it. They need to constantly view heterosexual pornography to prevent the fraudulent feeling from returning from its strange origin.

5. Since most heterosexual people, both men and women, are not born with this fraudulent sexual mindset of a sexual disability, they possess the mental fortitude to ignore it because they know it is a sexual fraud. The visuals do not affect the stability of their heterosexual feelings.

6. Killing or rehabilitating them is extremely important because these patients with a fraudulent sexual mindset live with a retarded sexual mentality, believing that their feelings in those bodies are normal. Killing or rehabilitating them is important because this feeling exists to create a world where heterosexual women and men are replaced in everything: jobs.
